CHARITON COURIER.

KEYTESVILLE, MO., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1887.

1887. LIST OF PREMIUMS 1887.

To be Awarded at the Twentieth Annual Meeting of the KEYTESVILLE FAIR!

October 4, 5, 6, 7 & 8, Inclusive

LIST OF PREMIUMS TO BE AWARDED AT THE Keytesville Fair.

The 20th Fair at Keytesville will commence Tuesday, October 4th, 1887, and continue 5 days. For the 15th time we present you with the list of premiums, and in so doing we feel a great pride in the record of the past. The above fair has been held at Keytesville for 15 years, and while the fair of our neighboring towns have failed and reorganized several times during this period, the Keytesville Fair has gone on without the slightest hitch or interruption, and each year proudly floats the flag of success from its Band Stand.

The cause of the unwavering success of these yearly exhibitions can be attributed to several reasons, the chief of which is, we have a host of friends in this enterprise who have done all they could to aid and encourage us, and we have always kept faith with the public. Nothing has been advertised that has not appeared, every premium has been paid without a discount, and every effort has been made to make it the most entertaining and instructive exhibition yet offered to the public.

Our fair is not a money-making institution. We have given the use of our money and labor gratis and have distributed upwards of forty (40) thousand dollars in premiums, thereby let the people congratulate, renew old and make new acquaintances, teach and be taught, so when you return to your homes, you may feel fresher and wiser, and that you have encouraged the Keytesville Fair by your presence.

We are proud to say without fear of contradiction that we have the best behaved fair people in the state. No gambling devices or saloons will be there. Spirituous, malt or fermented liquors shall not be bought or sold on the grounds.

Respectfully,
WM. E. HILL, Manager.
